

DH McNabb

American glass artist, DH McNabb encapsulates concepts of memory, time, and place in his work. A world-traveler for his artform, DH McNabb brings his glass artistry to far-reaching lands known for the heritage of the mesmerizing medium.

A graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design; throughout his career, McNabb's collaborations, and connections to notable institutions like Corning & Murano and Masters such as Stephen Powell, Lino Tagliapietra and Dale Chihuly merged his expansive view of the world and its varied landscapes, embodying these experiences and memories within his practice.

Represented by Method & Concept; DH McNabb's glass work is distinct with soft forms and direct use of color. His glass work is visually balanced and beautiful and references the colorways of the sunrise and sunsets throughout his travels.

*DH McNabb's collections are currently on view and available in Naples, Florida.
